Coram : P.V. HARDAS AND
D.G. KARNIK, JJ.

Date : 1st April 2004.

P.C.: Heard learned counsel for the parties. The learned counsel for the applicant states that the land had been allotted to the applicant on 27th March 2004 and only some time may be granted to the applicant for vacating the premises so that she may construct in the land allotted to her and shift there. The applicant is a widow aged 70 years with two unmarried daughters. Learned Advocate General has no objection if a couple of months time is granted for vacating the premises, in view of the peculiar facts of this case. Taking an overall view of the matter, we are of the opinion that some time may be granted to the applicant, subject to her furnishing some security for vacating the premises.

2. Accordingly, the applicant is given time for vacating the premises till 7th June 2004, subject to her undertaking to this Court that she will vacate the premises by 7th June 2004 and furnishes a security of Rs. 10,000/- in this Courtwithin a week hereof. It is made clear that no further extension of time for vacating the premises will be granted to the applicant on the ground of onset of monsoon.
